Liturgy of the Eucharist Eucharistic Prayer for Lent

Presider May the Holy One be with you.
All And also with you.
 Presider Lift up your hearts.
All We lift them up to our God.
 Presider Let us give thanks to the God of all.
All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

From the desert dust of broken lives,
 we give you praise, O Source of life, through Jesus.

This is the season of our repentance, the time when we gaze into the face of the suffering Jesus
 and we see in ourselves
 our own selfishness, our pride and our slowness to respond to your call for justice, mercy and peace.

You dwell within us
 and bid us bend our stubborn and fearful wills
 to form us into the Body of Christ,
 your instruments of peace to all the world.

Your Spirit prepares us to be refreshed in the waters of renewal.
 We fix our gaze upon the love and wisdom of the cross and give you thanks for the gift of reconciliation.
 O God ever near, we join our voices with all creation
 to sing your praise:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly One, God of maj - es - ty.
 Heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est.
 Bless-ed is the one who comes in the name of God.
 Ho-san-na in the high - est. Ho-san-na in the high - est.

The Prayer of Jesus

Holy One, our only Home, blessed be your name.
 May your day dawn, your will be done, here, as in heaven.
 Feed us today, and forgive us as we forgive each other.
 Do not forsake us at the test, but deliver us from evil.
 For the glory, the power, and the mercy are yours,
 now and forever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Presider The bread which we break,
 is it not communion in the body of Christ?
 The cup of blessing which we share,
 is it not communion in the blood of Christ?

God of all mercy, may the transforming power of your Spirit bless these gifts of bread and wine, and bless us. +
 May our sharing at this table be our offering of love, and may our daily lives
 become the continued presence of Jesus in the world.

On the night before he died, Jesus was at table with his friends.
 He took bread, gave thanks to you,
 broke it, and gave it to them saying:
 “Take this, all of you, and eat.
 This is my body which is given for you. Do this in memory of me.”

At the end of the meal, Jesus took the cup of wine.
 Again, he gave you thanks, gave the cup to his friends and said:
 “Take this, all of you, and drink.
 This is the cup of my blood poured out for people everywhere for the reconciliation of all.
 This is a new and everlasting covenant. Do this in memory of me.”

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Searcher of hearts,
 move us this day to take up deeds of courage.
Help us to lay aside our selfishness and fear
 and to go forth into a starving, empty world,
 bearing the fruits of this table:
 the food of human caring
 and the drink of loving compassion.

Open our ears to hear the cries of the forgotten poor,
 the silent dread of the abandoned.
 May we hear your voice among them
 and serve you in their midst.

We pray with Benedict, and Scholastica,
 with all holy people of every time and place,
 and all our beloved dead,
 whose memory we hold lovingly in our hearts.
