

HOLY THURSDAY

April 14, 2022

Clearing of the altar

The Holy Thursday liturgy ends with the clearing of the altar in preparation for the stark liturgy of Good Friday.

We pass from song to music to silence.

All are welcome to remain for personal prayer and reflection as our Triduum prayer unfolds the mystery of the passion and resurrection of Jesus.

You may remain in prayer or exit quietly.

The Oratory is also available for meditation.

Stay With Me

Musical score for the hymn "Stay With Me". It consists of two systems of music. The first system has a treble and bass staff in 4/4 time, with lyrics: "Stay with me, re - main here with me, watch and". The second system also has a treble and bass staff in 4/4 time, with lyrics: "pray, watch and pray." The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a key signature of one flat.

*Our services continue tomorrow– Good Friday at 3:00 pm, Saturday– the Easter Vigil at 7:30 pm, and Easter Sunday at 9:00 am.
We invite you to join us.*

Tonight, we begin the celebration of the Easter Triduum—the three days—Holy Thursday evening through Easter Sunday evening. These days are the culmination of the entire church year. We commemorate the last days of Jesus' life on earth, his passion and resurrection.

In tonight's service we remember Jesus washing the feet of his friends and sharing the meal at the last supper.

Our services continue tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday. Please join us.

Presider The bread which we break,
 is it not communion in the body of Christ?
 The cup of blessing which we share,
 is it not communion in the blood of Christ?

All So all of us are one body,
all who share the one bread and drink from the cup.

Communion Rite

Our Communion bread is gluten-free. All are welcome to receive Communion. Come to any one of the four locations in the room. Two stations are behind the altar, one at the side exit, and one near the piano.

A time of silent reflection follows our sharing of Communion.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

When we eat this bread___ and drink this_ cup,
we pro-claim your death, O Christ, un-til you come a - gain._

Covenant God,
in the life and example of Jesus,
you have given us this intimate bond of a common table,
and the commandment to love one another.

May our communion be sign and seal
of our washing of feet,
that as we have served one another,
so may our compassion extend to all the world.

Bless the communion of all the Christian churches.
Give them servant leaders in the manner of Jesus,
never dominating, but caring for all people.

Bless the leaders of all the religions of the world.
Bless the peacemakers
who seek to bring people to the same table and bless all those of good will who strive to bring about a better world.

God of everlasting life,
may our remembrance of the life and death of Jesus
bring mercy and peace to those who are dying and to all our beloved dead.

Join our prayer with all the holy ones
who have gone before us, especially witnesses of charity and service.

May all of us be joined together one day in the eternal banquet.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ.....for ever and ever.

A - men, a - men, a - - - men.

at this table you feed us and strengthen us in holiness
 so we may walk in the light of faith and in communion with one another.

May your comforting Spirit

be present to our table and sharing so we may grow in the likeness of Jesus.

For Jesus, on the night when he was betrayed,
 took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks,
 he broke it, blessed it and said:
 This is my body given for you.
 Do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way he took the cup, blessed it and said:
 This cup is a new covenant in my blood.
 Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.
