We praise you, O God, who calls us to deep intimacy
in this Eucharistic celebration.

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts +
as we offer thanks for the bread and the cup that will heal our hearts and transform our lives.

On the night before he died, Jesus took bread and gave you thanks.
He broke the bread and passed it to his friends saying:
Take this all of you and eat. This is my body given for you.

At the end of the meal, Jesus took a cup of wine.
Again he gave you thanks and praise, and shared the cup with his friends saying:

Take this all of you and drink.
This is the cup of my blood poured out for people everywhere for the reconciliation of all.
This is a new and everlasting covenant.
Do this in memory of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died. Christ is ris-en. Christ will come, come a - gain.

God of all hope, help us to live as a new body, brought to birth by the Spirit of the Risen One in acts of forgiveness, healing and justice.

Give us strength to support all who suffer.
Grant us courage to work for peace in places torn by violence,
hatred and war.

Keep us dedicated to honor our partnership with
your holy creation,
that the land, water, air, plants and animals,
and all humanity
may reflect your divine beauty.

We thank you for all those through the ages
who have heard your call and followed your way.
We lift up our loved ones who have died, and those most in need.
Let this meal nourish us to go into the world
to heal and serve one another,
and fulfill the vision of unity that Jesus taught.

All join in singing the Doxology and Amen:

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, — in the u - ni - ty — of the Spir-it — all glo - ry and hon - or is yours, O God, now and for-ev-er, — A - - - men. —
