Eucharistic Prayer VII for Ordinary Time

All join in proclaiming the Eucharist Prayer. The Assembly parts are in bold.

Presider May the Holy One be with you.

All And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them up to our God.

Presider Let us give thanks to the God of all.

All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Great and holy designer of all that is,
from everlasting you are the Source of our Being.

You weave the fabric of the universe
and spread it as the dwelling tent of your glory.
You invite all creation to robe itself
in the love pouring out from your heart
as from a fountain of never-ending abundance.

We thank you for the extravagance of your giving,
for the endless communion of your presence
among us and in all that is.

We thank you that throughout history
you have been calling the human family together and inspiring us to love one another and to learn from the humblest parts of creation
your hidden ways.

Joining now with all the cosmos and every living creature, we sing your praise.

San - to, San - to, San - to, San - to es Dios del U - ni - ver - so.
Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na en el cie - lo. Ho - san - na en el cie - lo.
Bless - ed is the one who comes in the name of our God. —
Ho - san - na en el cie - lo. Ho - san - na en el cie - lo.

Holy One who gathers us,
we honor the ones who have revealed your ways
and we thank you for the courage and fidelity of all whom you have sent to prepare a path for us to follow—the faithful ones of every age and culture.

We especially thank you for Jesus who comes to us as bread for our journey,
In him you revealed the complete mystery of love
that is the human family.
We seek to follow Jesus' example and become the Body of Christ
in all our interactions and relationships.

On the night before he died, Jesus gathered his friends together for a meal and shared with them his life and love.

While they were at supper he took bread, gave you thanks,
broke it and passed it among them saying:
“Take this all of you, and eat. This is my body given you.”

Then he took the cup of wine, said the blessing, and gave it to them saying: “Take this, all of you, and drink.
This is the cup of my blood, poured out for you and for all,
so that creation may be reconciled.
Every time you do this, do this in remembrance of me.”

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

When we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim your death, O Christ, un - til you come a - gain.

Giver of every blessing, send your gracious Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine. +

Help us to recognize the reality of Christ present among us.
Grant us the courage and the power
to be your justice and your peace in our world.
Give us open hearts and minds to welcome all who are outcast,
especially the immigrant and the refugee.
Teach us to live gently and gratefully upon this planet
and upon the pathway you have chosen for us
from among the stars.

As we make our prayer to you, O Holy One, remember our loved ones who have died, give comfort to all who suffer, and may the fullness of your peace be revealed in every land.
