the room next to the library. If you need to get your child early, take the elevator down, go toward the library. We are in the room just to the right. The Hospitality Room will be available if little ones need space to stretch. Contact Sarah Wilkin Gibart (sjwilkin09@gmail.com) with questions or to offer your help.

- Dementia Awareness and How to be a Dementia Friendly Community Join us from 10:15- 11:00 am for a presentation by Melissa Woznick, case manager at the Waunakee Senior Center and member of the Dementia Friendly Committee, who will share with us how to be a dementia friendly community. This session is for everyone—to increase our awareness about dementia, to learn how to assist those coping with impairments and how we can help create a community of support. All are welcome to attend this free event. For more information contact Lynn Lemberger, llemberger@holywisdommonastery.org.
- ❖ Sunday, February 5, in the Assembly Room, from 4 to 6 p.m. “Body, Heart, Spirit: Integrative Health” David Rakel, M.D., Professor and Chair of the Department of Family Medicine and Community Health at UW-Madison, and founder of the Integrative Health Program is our guest speaker. Focusing on compassion care, empathy, human relationship, and listening – Dr. Rakel brings to medical care a balanced and wholistic approach. Come and be encouraged to become stronger self-advocates in your own health care, to make integrative and proactive choices promoting the fullness of your health and well-being. Register for this free event by January 29 at: <https://holywisdommonastery.org/event/body-heart-spirit-integrative-health/>
- ❖ Evolutionary Exploration Series of Presentations The purpose of Evolutionary Exploration is to make us more conscious of what is evolving in our Cosmic World and our Community of Communities here at Holy Wisdom. ## Blessing for the ECCSR Cohort

Leader: When life rushes and demands distract

Pastors: Remind us of your constant care and deep love, O God

Leader: When deadlines loom and expectations crush

Pastors: Remind us of the blessings of balance and life-giving silence

Leader: When hardship weighs heavy and sorrow takes root

Pastors: Remind us of our connections to this place and each other

Leader: When imaginations diminish and ministry becomes burden

Pastors: Renew our spirits and whisper Your “yes” deep into our hearts

All On this day of Christian Unity, we celebrate our ecumenical relationships and the blessings of sharing this time together.

Leader: May the spirit of the people and the prairies of Holy Wisdom linger in your hearts and bless your life and ministries. Amen.

A time of silent reflection follows our sharing of Communion.

Prayer after Communion

Loving Creator God,

we thank you for your constant love for all you have made.

We thank you for all that sustains life,
for all people of faith and many religions who have given themselves to your will,
and especially for Jesus.

We praise you for his birth, life, death, and resurrection, and for calling forth your church
for a mission of witness and service in the world.

Gifted by the presence of your Holy Spirit,
we unite our voices with people everywhere:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly God of pow - er and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the highest.

Blest is the one who comes in the name of our God. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the highest.

Merciful God, with faithful and loving hearts,
we recall anew the words and actions of Jesus Christ.

As they were eating, Jesus took bread, blessed and broke it,
gave it to his friends, and said:

“Take this, all of you and eat.

This is my body given up for you.”

Then Jesus took a cup, and after giving thanks,
gave it to them saying:

“Take this all of you and drink.

This is the cup of my blood, poured out for people everywhere
for the reconciliation of all.

This is a new and everlasting covenant.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

All join in singing:

We are your people, gath - ered in your name. We praise you, we bless you, we give you thanks.

By eating this bread and drinking this cup,
we proclaim Christ's death, celebrate Christ's resurrection,
and await Christ's coming again.

Come, Holy Spirit, come.
Bless this bread, and bless this fruit of the vine.
Open our eyes that we may recognize the risen Christ
in our midst, in each other and in every person,
and in all creation.

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ... forever and ever.

A - - - men, A - le - lu - ia. We praise you, we bless you, we give you thanks.

The Prayer of Jesus

Holy One, our only Home, blessed be your name.
May your day dawn, your will be done, here, as in heaven.
Feed us today, and forgive us as we forgive each other.
Do not forsake us at the test, but deliver us from evil.
For the glory, the power, and the mercy are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

Refrain:

Je - sus Christ, bread of life, fill us with your love,
Je - sus Christ, Lamb of God, fill us with your peace.

Verse:

Faith - ful - ly, we re - call, gath - ered here as one,
bread of life cup of peace, which we now be - come.

Music: LARGO, Symphony No. 9 (From the New World) by Antonín Dvořák, adapted and arr. by Steve Schaubel, ©2000, World Library Publications. All rights reserved. Reprinted under One License A-703698.

Presider The bread which we break, is it not communion in the body of Christ?
The cup of blessing which we share,
is it not communion in the blood of Christ?

All So all of us are one body,
all who share the one bread and drink from the cup.

Communion Rite

*Our Communion bread is gluten-free.
All are welcome to receive Communion.
Come to any one of the four locations in the room. Two stations are behind the altar, one at the side exit, and one near the piano.*
