Breaking of the Bread

Presider

The bread which we break,
is it not communion in the body of Christ?
The cup of blessing which we share,
is it not communion in the blood of Christ?

All

So all of us are one body,
all who share the one bread and drink from the cup.

Communion Rite

Our Communion bread is gluten-free. All are welcome to receive Communion.
Come to any one of the locations in the room—at side exit, on the opposite side near the piano, or behind the altar.
The presider will offer the cup of wine behind the altar for those who wish to receive.

A time of silent reflection follows our sharing of Communion.

Liturgy of the Eucharist

Eucharistic Prayer for the Feast of the Body & Blood of Christ

All join in proclaiming the Eucharist Prayer.
The Assembly parts are in bold.

Presider The Holy One be with you.
All And also with you.
Presider Lift up your hearts.
All We lift them up to our God.
Presider Let us give thanks to our God.
All It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Sustaining and nourishing God,
we do well always and everywhere
to give you thanks through Jesus.
He became the gift of life for us:
bread broken on the altar of the cross,
his life blood poured out like wine.

In this memorial,
you continue to feed and strengthen your people
so that all humanity may walk in the light of faith and learn the ways of love together.

All creation unites to praise you in song.

Blessed is the one who comes, Jesus.
He is the new manna in the wilderness,
the bread from heaven and the cup of blessing
in which we all have been blessed.

Covenant God,
may the fullness of your grace
come upon our gifts of bread and wine +
and upon our lives today,
making us into the body of Christ.

On the night before he died Jesus took bread, blessed it, broke it and passed it among his friends and said:
Take this, all of you, and eat.
This is my body given for you.

That same night he took the cup of blessing and did likewise saying: Take this, all of you, and drink.
This is the cup of my blood poured out for people everywhere for the reconciliation of all.

This is a new and everlasting covenant.
Do this in memory of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

Source of all existence,
we thank you for the mystery of the dying
and rising of Jesus,
present in these gifts of bread and wine.

May this food truly be for us
the nourishment of eternal life,
and the promise of resurrection.

Keep us mindful of the hungry people of the world,
whose desperate situation challenges our faith and contradicts your saving will.
Help us never to forget that food and drink
are at the heart of our faith.
Nourish the faith of all your people,
especially those who guide the Christian churches and the leaders of other world religions.
May we grow together in unity.

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ….. forever and ever.

The Prayer of Jesus

Holy One, our only Home, blessed be your name.
May your day dawn, your will be done, here, as in heaven.
Feed us today, and forgive us as we forgive each other.
Do not forsake us at the test, but deliver us from evil.
For the glory, the power, and the mercy are yours,
now and forever. Amen.
