Pastoral Care Services are available to members of the Holy Wisdom Monastery communities. For more information or to receive care, contact Jane Ahlstrom at 608-222-5139 or janeahlstrom@sbsglobal.net. We extend our grateful thanks to Sandy Adams who generously provided leadership and support for our pastoral care services for many years! Thank you Sandy, for your care and attention to the needs of our community members. Your gift of time, energy, prayer and support has been a blessing.

Friends of Wisdom Prairie Note Cards are for sale in the gathering space all the time. They feature lovely pictures taken here on the prairie. Envelopes for payment are available next to the card display and can be deposited in the donation box under the TV screen. We appreciate all that you can do and know you will enjoy seeing the pictures as you send the note cards to loved ones. Cost is $3.00 for one or $10.00 for four.

Today:
- Children's Ministry Children ages 6-9 are invited for some learning and prayer time during the Liturgy of the Word. Once dismissed, we will go downstairs to the room next to the library. If you need to get your child early, take the elevator down, go toward the library. We are in the room just to the right. The Hospitality Room will be available if little ones need space to stretch. Contact Sarah Wilkin Gibart (sjwilkin09@gmail.com) with questions or to offer your help.
- Next Sunday, June 11, Feast of the Body & Blood of Jesus
  - Childcare will be available during worship.
  - Kids On the Prairie at 10:30 am. Meet at the Kiosk to explore and learn about birds with Mike Crawford and Sue Bradley. Register online. https://holywisdommonastery.org/kotp/

Please silence your cell phone before worship begins.

Announcements

❖ A special welcome to guests and visitors! Thank you for joining us. We welcome you and hope that you will find a spiritual home with us. We’d love to know that you were here. Please sign our guest book on the table near the entrance. For more information about Sunday Assembly, the monastery or the sisters’ community see https://HolyWisdomMonastery.org or contact Lynn Lemberger, llemberger@holywisdommonastery.org. A special visitors table near the dining room entrance, hosted by our friendliest members is available for our visitors and guests. Please join us after worship for coffee and conversation.

❖ Gender Neutral Restrooms can be found in the Hospitality Room in the hallway just after the coat racks.

❖ Join Sunday Assembly! Have you been worshipping with us frequently over the last few months? We hope that you’ve found a spiritual home with us and invite you to consider becoming a member of Sunday Assembly. It’s simple. Yellow membership forms can be found at the monastery entrance. Just fill it out and return in the collection basket next Sunday or send by mail. Or sign-up through our website.
Breaking of the Bread

Presider
The bread which we break, is it not communion in the body of Christ?
The cup of blessing which we share, is it not communion in the blood of Christ?

All
So all of us are one body, all who share the one bread and drink from the cup.

Communion Rite
Our Communion bread is gluten-free. All are welcome to receive Communion.

Come to any one of the locations in the room—at side exit, on the opposite side near the piano, or behind the altar.
The presider will offer the cup of wine behind the altar for those who wish to receive.

Liturgy of the Eucharist

Eucharistic Prayer for the Feast of the Holy Trinity

All join in proclaiming the Eucharist Prayer. The Assembly parts are in bold.

Presider May the Holy One be with you.
All And also with you.
Presider Lift up your hearts.
All We lift them up to our God.
Presider Let us give thanks to the God of all.
All It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Fountain of all Holiness,
  we do well to give you praise and thanks through your Beloved and the Breath of Life.

We joyfully proclaim our faith in the mystery of you,
beyond and within of our lives.
For you revealed your glory as the glory also of Jesus and the Spirit of truth and life:
three persons equal in majesty,
undivided in splendor, yet one God,
ever within the depths of our human experience,
always beyond our hopes and dreaming.

We join all creation to sing the unending hymn of praise.

Unknowable, unnamable God, your traces are yet unfolded in the uniqueness of every creature and in every stirring of human history.

In time and yet beyond time you revealed yourself in the mystery of Jesus, living, dying, rising, breathing out Spirit in returning to you.

Pour out that same life-giving Spirit upon the mystery of this assembly and our gifts of bread and wine.

On the night before he died Jesus took bread, blessed it, broke it, passed it among his friends and said:
Take this, all of you, and eat. This is my body given for you.

That same night he took the cup of blessing and did likewise, saying:
Take this, all of you, and drink. This is the cup of my blood poured out for people everywhere for the reconciliation of all.
This is a new and everlasting covenant.
Do this in memory of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.

O source without beginning or end,
you emptied yourself into the human condition in Jesus:
through word and deed, through cross and crown,
through humiliation and exaltation, making of him a life-giving Spirit for all of us.

May that same Spirit blow where it will in this assembly, freeing and binding together,
gifts ever forming and given away.

Triune God, strengthen the spirit of communion to gather together all people for unity in diversity, collaboration in the human project,
and care for the earth.

Give us faith, O God,
to see your power and wonder drawing all things together
from grace to grace, through Jesus and the Spirit

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ..... forever and ever.

The Prayer of Jesus

Holy One, our only Home, blessed be your name.
May your day dawn, your will be done, here, as in heaven.
Feed us today, and forgive us as we forgive each other.
Do not forsake us at the test, but deliver us from evil.
For the glory, the power, and the mercy are yours,
now and forever. Amen.
