Liturgy of the Eucharist

Eucharistic Prayer IX for Ordinary Time
All join in proclaiming the Eucharist Prayer.
The Assembly parts are in bold.

Presider
May the Holy One be with you.
ALL
And also with you.
Presider
Lift up your hearts.
ALL
We lift them up to our God.
Presider
Let us give thanks to the God of all.
ALL
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Source of all goodness, we praise you and we bless you.
We are your children, bearing your image.
You have made us and we belong to you.
You do not hide from us.
You are not distant.
You have revealed yourself and your great love for us in all your wonderful works.
We see you in the strength of mountains,
the solitude of deserts,
and in gentle and refreshing rain.
We see you in the height of skies and ocean depths,
in birds that soar and fish that swim.
We see you in the hope of sunrise,
the relief and rest of sunset.
All your works proclaim your love.

Surrounded and protected by your care
we join all creation in praising your name:

Holy One, holy, holy, holy One, God of ever-lasting love, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blest is the One who comes in your name, O Most High. Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest.

Ever-living God,
we thank you for speaking your clear word of love to us: Jesus.
He came to assure us who you are,
revealing your love and grace,
your way of justice and peace.
For all he said and did, we thank you.

On the night before he died,
Jesus gathered his friends together for a meal
and shared with them his life and love.
While they were at supper he took bread, gave you thanks,
broke it and passed it among them saying:
“Take this, all of you and eat. This is my body given up for you.”
Then he took the cup of wine, said the blessing, and gave it to them saying:
“Take this, all of you, and drink. This is the cup of my blood, poured out for people everywhere for the reconciliation of all. This is a new and everlasting covenant. Do this in memory of me.”

Holy One, we thank you for Christ’s life among us,
the example he has left us of how to live a life of love.
We gratefully recall his death,
and how he shows us a way to die to self and live for others.
We remember the hope we have in Jesus’ resurrection and ascension:
the hope of the seed that falls into the ground,
the hope of the grapes that yield to crushing,
the hope of nonviolent love that overcomes hatred,
the hope of new and fuller life.

O God, send forth your Spirit, the Spirit Christ has promised,
upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine.
Help us rediscover the holiness of all creation
and see your divine presence in every person.
Strengthen us to work for justice and peace
and fill us with compassion and hope for tomorrow.
Remember our loved ones who have died and give comfort to all who suffer.
We make our prayer to you, O God,
in the name of your Beloved, Jesus, who is our hope.

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ...... forever and ever.

The Prayer of Jesus
Holy One, our only Home, blessed be your name.
May your day dawn, your will be done, here, as in heaven.
Feed us today, and forgive us as we forgive each other.
Do not forsake us at the test, but deliver us from evil.
For the glory, the power, and the mercy are yours,
now and forever. Amen.
