God of the beginning, God of the end,
We gather here with all the saints
and we remember those who have journeyed beyond life's shore. In your mercy grant them eternal life and peace.

We remember all those who suffer want and need
and those whose lives beg for the touch of human love. O God, do not leave us deaf to the cries of the poor. Move us always to give from our abundance and our need.
Make us truly a people worthy of your name.
In mercy and love unite us with all your faithful ones, the saints and our loved ones who have died, that together one day
we shall all praise your name through Jesus and the Holy Spirit, from whom all good things come.

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ,
in the unity of the Spirit, all glory and honor
is yours, O God, now and forever.

Liturgy of the Eucharist Eucharistic Prayer for the Solemnity of All Saints and All Souls
All join in proclaiming the Eucharist Prayer.
The Assembly parts are in bold.

P: May God be with you.
A: And also, with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to God.
Let us give thanks to the God of all.
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Eternal and ever living God,
all praise and thanks be yours
through Jesus and the spirit.

This day we gather with all your saints
and all those who have gone before us in faith,
the bright cloud of witnesses of every age.
Through your goodness,
the gift of life spread throughout the land,
bringing joy where there was despair,
bringing peace where there was discord.

Therefore, most Holy One,
we join our voices with Benedict and Scholastica,
Mary and all the saints,
with angels and ancients of every time and place,
to praise you for the bounty of your love
as we sing:

Fountain of life, we give you praise,
for your holiness sustains our every breath.

You give us food in every season.
You nurture us as your children with all good things.
Descend upon us with your holy wisdom
and fashion our lives in Christ's image,
making us a holy people.

Covenant God, we bring you these gifts.
We ask you to make them holy by the power of the Spirit, +
that they may become the body and blood of Jesus.

On the night before Jesus was executed, he gathered his friends together for a meal and shared with them his life and love.
While they were at supper he took bread, gave you thanks, broke it and passed it among them saying: "Take this all of you and eat. This is my body given for you."
Then he took the cup of wine, said the blessing, and gave it to them saying: "Take this, all of you, and drink. This is the cup of my blood, poured out for you and for all, so that creation may be reconciled. Every time you do this, do this in remembrance of me."

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:
